Senators Take Second in Ninth After Giants Capture First in 12th

Sunday Game in Ninth After Seeing Lead Wiped Out.

Peckinpough's Hit Wins

With Needed Run on Second in Person of Judge, Roger Cracks Out Fine Single—American Leaguers More
Steady Yesterday Than on Saturday.

After dropping the first game of the world series to the Giants, 4 to 3 in 12 innings Saturday, the Senators came back strong and won Sunday's grueling contest by the same score in the last of the ninth. The home club had entered the last frame two runs to the good, but McGraw's men succeeded in pushing over two ere Zachary was yanked and Marberry substituted for him. The latter took the mound with two down and fanned Jackson for the third out.

Nehf had the better of Johnson in the opening game. The great Sir Walter was considerably whiter than he usually is. His last one was coming over with great speed, but, at times, with little control. Notwithstanding this fact, he caused 12 of the Giants to whiff. He walked six.

The Giants got one run in the second and fourth, both on Duke homers, the ball landing but a few feet back of the barrier in left field. The Senators got one of these tallies back in the sixth and, completely wiped out the difference in the ninth.

Poor Base Running Costly.
Then came the 12th. Gowdy was passed the game when he threw out trying to force Gowdy at second after Nehf had hit. The men ended in third and second. Bentley was sent in to hit for Lindstrom and he was passed, hitting the bases. Frisch hit to Harris, who forced Gowdy at the plate. Young dropped a Texas squarer over Johnson's head, Nehf working. Kelly hit a long fly to Goslin, Southworth crossing the plate.

The Washingtonians tried in their half to tie and did succeed in getting one run over. Shirley batted for Johnson and hit a high fly which Jackson dropped for a two-base error. McNeely died to Southworth, while Harris singled to center, scoring Shirley. Rice singled to center, sending Harris to third, but the latter, though either an error of his own or the coachers, tried to stretch the out into a double and was caught a second by a wide margin. Kelly made a great one-hand catch of Goslin's slow roller and caught the batter at first by a step for the final out.

Peckinpough Sends in Needed Run.
(By the Associated Press.)
Washington, Oct. 5.—Battling with admirable courage that carried them to their first American league pennant, Washington's Senators today won the second game of the 1924 world series, and put themselves back in the thick of one of the most stirring struggles ever staged for baseball's greatest honors.

In a flashing finish that was equally as spectacular as the climax of yesterday's opening and twice as thrilling to another capacity home crowd of 15,000, Roger Peckinpough, veteran Washington shortstop, lifted himself to heroic heights by driving across the winning run in the ninth after the Giants had knocked Zachary, southpaw star, from the mound, and tied the score with two tallies in their part of the final inning.

The final score was 4 to 3, the same margin by which the first game was decided, and tonight two of the "brightest" clubs that ever met for

After the Giants had wiped out the Senators' two-run lead in the ninth, the Washington shortstop sent Judge across with the winning tally in the last of the ninth round.

WHEELER CHARGES G O P INTIMIDATION

No Longer Meet Campaign Arguments With Either Debate or Facts, He Says

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 5.—Senator Wheeler, independent vice presidential candidate, was taken off his train while en route to Seattle and brought by automobile to the Western Washington fair, near Puyallup, to address the crowds this afternoon.

"Some of your newspapers are already starting out to tell you that when Senator LaFollette and myself are elected the industries will shut down and the railroads quit running," he declared. "The Republicans have quit attempting to meet campaign arguments with counter arguments or facts, and are resorting to intimidation."

"If there are any of you who will sell your votes, and have not got the money yet, you had better look sharp, because these Republican politicians are holding out on you."

Tonight on international affairs, he said that the liberal government in the United States can compete with the liberal governments that rule England and France today to marshal the nations of the world for peace, not for war.

SMITH OFFERS HIS BEST FOR STATE

Big Audience Goes Wild as He Tells of Work Done—Wants to Complete Work Begun

Schenectady, Oct. 5.—Notified last night for the fourth time in his political career of his nomination for governor of New York, Alfred E. Smith accepted the nomination of the Syracuse convention in a speech before a wildly enthusiastic audience in the State theatre here.

While the band played "The Side-walks of New York," and a New York city delegation, headed by George W. Oliver, leader of Tammany hall, led the cheering, Governor Smith was greeted with an outburst of applause and cheers as he took his place on the stage.

The demonstration for the governor reached a climax when he delivered an impassioned peroration, declaring that he had given himself completely to the governorship during the last two years and had hoped to be relieved of its arduous tasks, but that he desired to complete the work he had begun so that in years to come he could point to "something that I did for a state that did so much for me."

The audience went almost mad with delight when the candidate pledged his best efforts for a "better and more enlightened government, for a sound, progressive, intelligent, business-like administration of the government of our state."

Picked from Governor's Address.

I had hoped to be relieved of the arduous duties of the governorship. In the last two years I have given to it every bit of energy that was in my body. I was never out of the state for more than a week at a time during all of that period, and kept in constant touch with its business. Lights burning during the winter months on the second floor of the capitol into the small hours of the morning are a familiar sight to the people of Albany. I have given myself completely to the duties of my office. I have watched the detail business of the state departments. I have struggled as best I could with the large problems of the state. I have taken an interest in everything that meant betterment of our government.

I take my consolation from the fact that we have made under trying circumstances very material progress, and I am moved by a desire to continue this work that I may be able in the years to come to point to something that I did for a state that did so much for me.

I promise the best that I am able to give to the state. I will devote my whole life to the betterment of our state. I will devote my whole life to the betterment of our state. I will devote my whole life to the betterment of our state.

DAWES TO MAKE OFFENSIVE INTO NORTHWESTERN CITIES

Chicago, Oct. 5.—An offensive against the LaFollette independent candidacy in Wisconsin, home state of its presidential nominee, and against its entrenchments in Minnesota, Iowa, and Nebraska, will be undertaken this week by Charles G. Dawes, Republican candidate for vice president.

Urges Voting

RABBI STEPHEN S. WISE
"The man who votes twice in little more than the man who does not vote at all," says Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, who, in a letter to NEA Service and The Oneonta Daily Star, urges everyone to support the "Vote-the-Vote" campaign. "The non-voting citizen not only disfranchises himself but also the nation. Two things are imperative, that the voter be informed, soberly and intelligently, and that he vote."

PRICE FIXING CHARGES MADE BY COMMISSION

Practices of Manufacturing Home-hold Furnishings Questioned in Report to Federal Trade Commission

UTENSILS AFFECTED

Articles in Use Every Day in Home
Mentioned—Aluminum Company of America and
Singer Concerns

Washington, Oct. 5.—Fresh charges of price fixing and questions about the practices of manufacturers of household furnishings are made in a concluding report on the industry by the federal trade commission, acting in response to a senate resolution.

"The outstanding features of the report," says an announcement by the commission "are the control exercised by patent pools among manufacturers of washing machines, the shutting out of new competition in the vacuum cleaner industry; the question about competitive tactics of the leading manufacturer of aluminum cooking utensils, which is affiliated with the Aluminum Company of America; the monopolistic position of the latter company, which has apparently engaged in various practices forbidden by a judicial decree under the Sherman act; the dominating position of the Singer company in the sewing machine industry; the efforts of trade associations in the refrigerator and broom industries to enhance the price of their products; and the competitive methods of retail dealers in kitchen utensils and domestic appliances."

Independent Manufacturers Harassed

According to the commission's announcement its report deals in detail with all the subjects mentioned but deals more at length with the Aluminum Company of America, which has been under various other attacks. The Aluminum Goods Manufacturing company, affiliated with the Aluminum Company of America, the report charges, has been practicing price discrimination between customers and has been active in maintaining resale prices while receiving special discounts from the Aluminum Company of America, which owns 20 per cent of its stock and "exercises a substantial control over its policy."

At the same time, the commission's report says, independent manufacturers of aluminum utensils have been embarrassed by delays in delivery of materials from the Aluminum company, or by no delivery at all of some materials, while in other cases, the Aluminum company, the report says, "has dumped, embarrassingly large quantities of metal on independent manufacturers to whom shipments have been delayed."

The remainder of the report deals with other industries producing household furnishings and kitchen utensils and charges either that an industry has a controlling interest in its line or its various means are being employed to increase prices or prevent price reductions.

The report covers such furnishings and utensils as are in everyday use in every home and kitchen.

CAPTAIN SKEEL KILLED IN PLANE LONG WORN OUT

Cleveland, Oct. 5.—Captain Burt E. Skeel, killed during the Pulitzer speed classic at Dayton yesterday, plunged to his death in a plane that was worn out two years ago, Glenn L. Martin, local aircraft manufacturer and member of the board of managers of the National Aeronautic association, said tonight on his return from Dayton.

The air service had no money to buy planes for the race and had to use old ones, Mr. Martin quoted Brigadier General William H. Mitchell, assistant chief of the army air service, as saying in Dayton after the accident.

WILSON'S NAME OFFERED

Berlin, Oct. 5.—Prolonged cheering interrupted a reference by Paul Loebe, former president of the reichstag, to the late President Wilson as "the father of the League of Nations" at a memorial meeting for the war dead held in the Reichstag building today under the auspices of the World Peace congress. German patriots, Liberals and Socialists participated. Herr Loebe's designation of President Wilson as an idealist, a far-sighted statesman, and the initiator of a new era with appealing words and hand-clapping.

Jamestown, Oct. 5.—Mrs. John Fitzell, 45, her two daughters and her four sons, were instantly killed, and John Fitzell was so badly injured that he probably will die, late this afternoon when their automobile was struck by a train on the Pennsylvania passenger train near Fort Allegheny, Pa., 16 miles south of Oil City. The family lived at Fort Allegheny.

RAIL OWNERS CLAIM MISREPRESENTATION

Independent Ticket Supporters
"Deliberately Mislead Voters," Says Statement

Chicago, Oct. 5.—"Blockless misrepresentation of railway matters" in the campaign books of the LaFollette-Wheeler party was denounced today in a statement signed by the presidents of five western railways. The statement, charging the supporters of the independent ticket with seeking the repeal of the Esch-Cummings transportation act and adoption of public ownership of the railroads "by deliberately misleading the voters," is issued by S. M. Felton of the Chicago Great Western; Hale Holden of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy; C. H. Markham of the Illinois Central; W. H. Finley of the Chicago & North Western; and J. E. Gorman of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific.

Replying to the assertion in the hand book that under the Esch-Cummings act the Interstate Commerce commission granted an advance in freight rates of $1,500,000,000, and that this "means a burden of $75 a year in freight rates alone to each of the 20,000,000 American families," the statement says that due to the deficit incurred under government operation of the roads and the increase in wages granted employees soon after, the rate increase was necessary to prevent a continued deficit which would have entered into the cost of living through taxes to defray it.

SMITH ON TOUR TO AID JOHN W. DAVIS

Has Speaking Dates Arranged in New England and New Jersey Cities

Albany, Oct. 5.—Governor Alfred E. Smith, accompanied by an aide, left here today by automobile for Manchester, N. H., where tomorrow he is scheduled to make the first of a series of addresses before New England audiences in furtherance of the national Democratic ticket.

The governor made his departure before newspapermen and friends were aware of it and the route he was to follow was not made public. It is understood that he would make the entire tour of the New England states by automobile, speaking Tuesday at Boston, Mass., Wednesday at Providence, R. I., and Thursday at Waterbury, Conn. He will then swing into New Jersey for an address in Trenton on Friday night, and in Newark on Saturday.

Democratic state leaders were enthusiastic today over the line of attack upon Republican policies as outlined by Governor Smith in his Schenectady speech of acceptance.

The fact that the governor failed to mention the name of his Republican opponent for the governorship is taken by Democratic leaders here to indicate that the campaign attacks will center directly on government Republican legislation opposition of last winter rather than personalities or national issues.

NO CHANGE IN LINES IN CHINESE CIVIL WARFARE

(By the Associated Press)
Shanghai, Oct. 5.—The civil warfare around Shanghai was without developments today. The lines were unchanged.

There was only occasional firing on the various fronts. Wen Shieh, designated by a mandate of the Pekin government as commissioner of foreign affairs at Shanghai, succeeding Hsiao Yuen, has arrived here and intends to assume his post, despite the fact that native Shanghai is controlled by Chekiang provincial forces opposed to Pekin.

It is reported that Ho Feng-shan, military commissioner of Shanghai for the Chekiang faction, is preparing to address the consular body stating that he will not recognize "illegal" appointments of civil officials by the Pekin government. He will instruct the old officials to retain their office.

REQUESTS FOR OPERATORS' LICENSES BELOW ESTIMATE

Albany, Oct. 5.—Reports from offices throughout the state, which have been issuing motor vehicle drivers' licenses under the new law, show that approximately 162,000 operators were licensed up to October 1 outside of New York city. Charles A. Harney, motor vehicle commissioner, announced today. This is a cut of 40,000 fewer than the estimated number required to be licensed by October 1. Practically only drivers in New York city had to meet this requirement.

EFFORT BEING MADE TO OUST NEGRO OFFICIAL

Validity of 14th Amendment to Constitution Attacked From
New Angle—Franchise
Endangered

LONG STORM CENTER

Confirmation to Post of Comptroller of New Orleans Port Twice Refused by Senate, But Later Granted

New Orleans, La., Oct. 5.—A rift attacking the validity of the 14th amendment from a new angle will be filed in federal district court here tomorrow in the form of a petition seeking a writ of habeas corpus. The petition, filed by J. E. Cohen, secretary-comptroller of customs of the port of New Orleans, from exercising the duties of that office, according to the Times-Picayune. The action, if successful, would have the effect of disenfranchising every negro in the United States.

The petition as published by the newspaper, charges that Cohen "falsely alleged himself to be a citizen of the United States, when he took the oath of office. It asserts that the defendant is not a citizen of this country, but a 'person of African blood and descent and is inherently incapable of being a citizen of the United States.'"

The suit, which it is brought in the name of H. Edwin Bolte, Washington, D. C. lawyer, the newspaper declared that it is grounds upon which it is based never have been decided by the court. The petition sets forth that three-fourths of the states did not ratify the amendment nor was it adopted by the required two-thirds vote of both houses of congress. Mr. Bolte was quoted as saying that an examination of the more than 200 supreme court decisions touching upon the amendment disclosed none that dealt with the points raised in this action, nor were they made an issue.

Confirmation Twice Refused.

The petition charges conspiracy to the authors of the amendment in congress and various sections are cited in efforts to show that they put the amendment into effect unlawfully.

It is taken the petition charges that when he took the oath of office, Cohen, Washington, April 12, 1924, swore falsely to his alleged citizenship, claiming to be a citizen under the "alleged 14th amendment of the constitution of the United States."

The petition alleges that 11 states of the union at the time of the adoption of the resolution "ratified in the alleged article 14" were unconstitutional, deprived of their equal suffrage in the senate, that six states were by coercion forced to ratify it, and that congress, "without power or authority, unlawfully declared amendment to the constitution a part of the constitution."

The petition requests the issuance of an injunction restraining Cohen from serving further as comptroller and from drawing the salary for that office.

Cohen, a leading Republican politician in Louisiana, has been a storm center ever since his nomination to the post by the late President Harding. The senate refused to confirm on the ground that he was personally obnoxious to the Louisiana members of the body. President Harding then issued a recess appointment and he served several months without pay. President Coolidge later sent his nomination back to the senate and again confirmation was denied on the same ground. Later the nomination was confirmed, upon reconsideration.

PARENTS' CONSENT NEEDED TO USE HOSE ON CHILDREN

White Plains, Oct. 5.—President Nicholas Stanfield of the local board of education announced tonight that a compromise had been reached by the opposing factions in the school board over the right of a rubber hose.

Mr. Holden had threatened to resign if use of the rubber hose was forbidden. It was agreed, however, after two meetings of the board and an open town meeting that Mr. Holden might threaten resignation under his approval, provided that parents be required to furnish their children with a rubber hose.

CAPTAIN JUDGE IN CRASH

American Legion Chapter's Car Is Wrecked In Collision Below Ogo—Slightly Injured—Other Work-End Auto Accident.

The Rev. J. A. Judge, 34 Maple street, state chaplain of the American Legion, and John Hestling of 197 Spruce street, narrowly escaped death in a short distance below Ogo on the Dickinson road late yesterday afternoon, when the automobile in which they were riding turned turtle due to a collision on a narrow bridge. Captain Judge suffered a severely bruised head, sprained neck and was severely shaken up. Hestling escaped with slight bruising.

The car which collided with Captain Judge's Ford coupe is reported to have been driven by Milton Walsh of this city and to have contained J. J. Monahan, 14 Fairview street, Clifford Walsh and Paul Riley. Witnesses who saw the accident declared that the collision followed an attempt on the part of the driver of the car containing the four men to pass another car on a narrow bridge, with the result that it struck Captain Judge's car coming from the opposite direction. The Ford coupe was wrecked but the other machine was not sufficiently damaged to put it out of commission.

Toothers Investigate

Circumstances surrounding the accident have resulted in an investigation being started by state troopers at Sidney barracks under the direction of Lieutenant Faber. Immediately following the crash a boy who was seen one of the four men hasten to the creek and throw a package into the water which he had secured from the car which struck Captain Judge's machine. The package afterward was fished out of the water and alleged to have been a bottle filled with a liquid believed to be gin. Monahan, in reporting the accident to the Oneonta police office, declared that the car usual of him stopped at the head of the bridge suddenly without any signal and that he pulled out to avoid hitting it and the "car coming across the bridge hit me."

Several minor accidents were reported at police headquarters over the week-end. Frank Austin, 22 Luther street, reported that at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, near Mt. Vision, driving on his side of the road, Royal Blanchard of South Kortright ran into the front of his machine but no damage was done.

Other Accidents

Floyd Turk, 6 North Seventh street, reported that while passing another car yesterday afternoon on the south side, the other car turned back into the road striking Turk's machine in the rear fender.

Margaret Becker, 1 Ivy court, reported that shortly before noon Saturday at Broad and Water streets, she made a turn from Broad into Water when the bumper of another car caught the fender of the machine she was driving.

J. G. Abbott, 36 Burnside avenue, reported that he ran over a dog at Main and Elm streets Saturday afternoon. "I stopped and looked about for the dog," reads Mr. Abbott's report, "but was unable to find same."

On top of the above report, Lieut. Faber of the state police came into headquarters and declared that a large Packard touring car, traveling at a high rate of speed the other side of Ogo, went over the bridge, completely over, tearing off the top, righted itself again without throwing any of the occupants out and then went merrily on its way as if nothing had happened.

Urges American Participation In League of Nations Court

Paul Harvey Urges That United States Become Associate Member of League of Nations, Without Many Obligations But With Representation in Council and Assembly—Charges Question Is Political Football—Imprudent W. C. T. U. Allegiance Parade Saturday Follows Addresses by Candidates, Senator Lowman and Harold S. Tolley, Pledging Prohibition Enforcement—Missionaries Speak on Activities—Pageant Tonight.

A large number of interesting and inspiring addresses, programs of various departments, reports, and a long allegiance parade featured the week-end in the state W. C. T. U. convention which will continue its sessions until Tuesday noon. Senator Lowman, author of a large number of highway bills which have been passed in New York state, and Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor of the state, was one of the speakers Saturday afternoon, and he reaffirmed that the Republican party when placed in power would provide a suitable prohibition enforcement measure so that state officials might assist in curbing the present outbreak of lawlessness.

Yesterday morning Dr. J. C. Russell of the First Presbyterian church preached the annual sermon of the organization.

Yesterday afternoon Paul Harvey, former editor of the "International Interpreter," addressed a mass meeting of the convention held at the Oneonta theatre, and which packed that large auditorium on the topic "Shall America Hold Fast and Help Win the World for Prohibition and Peace?"

Mr. Harvey advocated America's entry into the League of Nations World court, it being his opinion that America could secure representation there without any definite entry into the League. He urged that the plan is one suggested by Col. House, a man who is as completely in touch with the feeling of that organization as any man in the world, and that Col. House feels that entry into the League would not be required.

Big Mass Meeting Yesterday

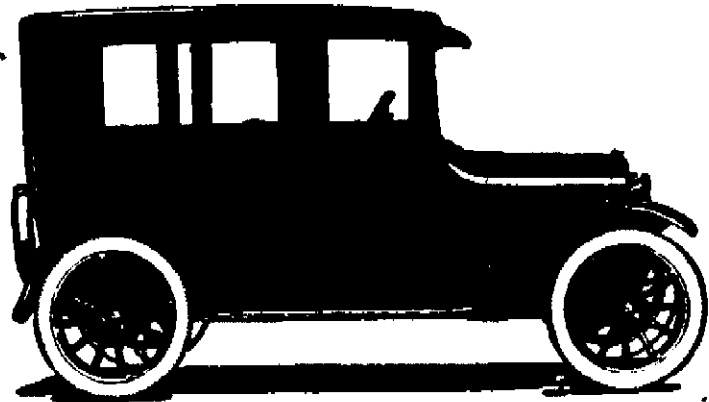

The Oneonta theatre was filled to capacity yesterday afternoon for the mass meeting held in connection with the convention, and for which Paul Harvey of New York city, former editor of the "Interpreter," was the speaker. Mr. Harvey spoke most interestingly of the position of the United States in the affairs of the world and was warmly applauded. At the close of his address, a brief summary of which follows, Mr. Harvey answered a number of questions, sending his audience home with food for considerable thought.

A sacred concert was given, preceding the address, by Keeton's band, closing with "America," two numbers were given by the Elks' Glee club of this city, and prayer was read by Rev. A. R. Skinner, of the United Presbyterian church.

Following is the summary of the address of Mr. Harvey: "The generation that fought the late world war has it necessary to construct a new world order of things because the war was the result of certain definite causes which are still existing. These must be removed; conflicts which without regulation

GRAVE OF MISS SCATCHARD

Mrs. Baird and Mrs. Ford Tell Memories of Binghamton Club of Inappreciating Experiences There.

An interesting story of her visit to the grave of Miss Ethel Scatchard in the cemetery at Binghamton, Pa., was told by Mrs. George B. Baird in her talk at the meeting of the Binghamton club at the residence of Mrs. Arthur E. Ford on Saturday evening, the evening being devoted to the recital of interesting experiences while traveling by members during recent jaunts. Mrs. Baird stated that the cemetery is nicely kept and its long rows of little white crosses tell a story of devotion and sacrifice of an appealing force. An attendant informed her that more people visit each year the grave of Miss Scatchard than any other mound in the cemetery and a wealthy nurse residing in Paris comes once a week with choice flowers for the Scatchard grave.

As the party were entering the cemetery they heard a song of a lark which sounded more beautiful than ever a lark had sung in her presence before and to Mrs. Baird it seemed a tribute to the sweet life and character. It was quite a coincidence, she was told, as larks are rarely, if ever, heard at the period of the year the visit was made. Mrs. Baird told also of a lake through Rummel George at Constantinople, Africa.

Mrs. Morton L. Ford, who was with Mrs. Baird on the same trip, also told of some of their experiences which appeared especially to her, including the visit to the Garden of Allah.

Mrs. Arthur E. Ford spoke of her trip to California and a visit to the first ranch of her brother-in-law at Elsinore and of the experience and the meadow larks, which were seen there, with a falcon and longer song than these we have, and of some 12 varieties of humming birds, counted by the way.

Other speakers were Miss Zoe Rowland, who described the geysers seen in Yellowstone park, and Miss Ada K. Smith, the latter reciting some interesting experiences in climbing Mt. Ranier and of the sights above the timberline and in the ice caves.

Mrs. Stanton instituted the action for separation and alimony on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment, and desertion.

AT NEW YORK UNIVERSITY.

Sherman M. Fairchild to Lecture Before School of Engineering.

Residents of Oneonta, to whom the name of Sherman M. Fairchild, who is a son of Hon. George W. Fairchild of this city, is familiar, will be interested to know that he has accepted an invitation to lecture on November 5 before the School of Engineering of New York University. His subject will be "Practical Applications of the Aeroplane," and the honor comes to him, to quote the words of a well-known professor in the university, because of his wonderful inventions in taking photographs from a "aeroplane." It is possible that lecture will be broadcasted at 8:45 p. m. on the above date through WJZ.

New York university has always been interested in scientific inventions. From it came the telegraph, the invention of Samuel F. B. Morse, and the modern camera, the invention of Prof. John W. Draper, and every year it has a series of lectures on scientific inventions. That this invitation should come to Sherman W. Fairchild is evidence of the importance of his invention and the distinct quality of his work.

Yellow Cab A modern necessity

If you were to wake up tomorrow morning and find that every efficient, modern taxicab had disappeared from the streets, you would suddenly realize what YELLOW CAB "organized responsibility" has brought to the cab business.

Would you freely trust yourself to the tender mercies of an unknown driver at the wheel of a "for hire" vehicle?

Do you imagine that the public of this city would enjoy uniform low rates of fare and courteous treatment, except for the presence of YELLOW CAB?

If you were to lose your purse or other valuables after a trip in a nondescript "hack," would you confidently know that your property would be returned to you?

Would you consign your wife and little ones to the questionable interior of somebody's one-time limousine, with its tattered, filthy upholstery?

Such a picture is inconceivable today, and yet only a few years ago it actually existed in this city.

Not the least of the things for which YELLOW CAB deserves credit, is the pressure it has brought to bear through competition, in elevating the character of public motor conveyances in general.

Beginning To-day Congoleum Week October 6 to 11 only

A Six-Day Sale of America's Most Popular Floor-Covering

For the first time in two years, genuine nationally-advertised Gold-Seal Congoleum Rugs, By-the-Yard and Rug-Border are now offered at special bargain prices. Unlike sales that feature cut prices on left-overs at the end of the season, Congoleum Week gives every woman the opportunity to beautify her floors at the lowest possible cost just at the time when she is putting her home in order for the winter.

Instead of putting down the same old rugs and carpets after everything else has been cleaned and looks like new, a few dollars spent now for Gold-Seal Congoleum Rugs will do wonders in brightening up the home.

One of the greatest charms of Gold-Seal Congoleum Rugs—the warmth and artistry of their color schemes—cannot be appreciated from this advertisement. You must see them to realize how beautiful your floors can be made at such small cost.

Beautiful—Durable—Easily Cleaned

A delightful note of brightness and color is introduced into the home by Congoleum Rugs. Beautiful to begin with, the unusually durable surface resists the hardest wear.

These popular rugs banish the tedious beating and sweeping necessary with old-fashioned, woven floor-coverings. One minute with a damp mop and the rich, artistic patterns of Congoleum Rugs are revealed in their full beauty—cleaned as easily as highly glazed tiles.

Designs for Every Room

There are appropriate Congoleum patterns for every room, for every manner of taste, for every color scheme. There are warm-toned designs to enrich the appearance of dining and living-rooms; exquisite floral patterns to give fresh beauty to bedrooms and neat conventional reproductions for kitchen, pantry and bathroom.

Waterproof and Stain-Proof

Gold-Seal Congoleum Rugs are made in one strong, seamless piece. They are absolutely unaffected by water. They will not fray along the edges. Spilled liquids cannot stain and dirt cannot penetrate their smooth, sanitary surface.

No Fastening Required

Gold-Seal Congoleum Rugs lie absolutely flat without fastening. They won't wrinkle or kick up; they never curl at the edges.

Genuine, Guaranteed Goods

All the Gold-Seal Congoleum offered in this sale is fresh, new goods. All of it carries the famous Gold Seal pledge of "Satisfaction Guaranteed or Your Money Back." For your own protection, remember there is only one "Congoleum" and it is identified by the Gold Seal pasted on the face of every pattern.

Gold-Seal Congoleum By-the-Yard

The same material as Congoleum Rugs, and made in tasteful unbordered designs for use over the entire floor.

Gold-Seal Congoleum Rug-Border

If it is desired to cover the floor space between a large centre rug and the walls, there is Congoleum Rug-Border in realistic reproductions of hardwood flooring.

Don't Miss This Opportunity

Wherever you may live—you will find a Congoleum dealer near you. He will be glad to show you the many beautiful patterns. Don't delay. Reduced prices are in effect this week only.

CRAM PRICES JUMP

UP SENSATIONALLY

Extreme Gains of Four and One-Eighth to 20% Cents per Bushel Are Shown in May Wheat, Rye and Corn

New York, Oct. 5. — Sensational advances in grain prices overshadowed all other developments in the financial and commodity markets last week. Prompted by the heavy foreign demand for western farm products, wheat rose to $1.15 1/2 a bushel; May rye to $1.40, and May corn to $1.17 1/2, the high prices representing extreme gains of four and one-eighth to 20% cents a bushel over the preceding week's closing figures. Prompting sales brought about some recalculation from the high levels.

Stock prices moved within a narrow trading area until Friday when what was generally described as a "political scare" resulted in heavy selling for both accounts, forcing substantial recessions in many issues. While it is obviously impossible to gauge the effect of political developments on price movements, many brokers report a tendency of traders and investors to lighten their holdings pending definite developments on the drift of political sentiment.

Chief interest in the bond market lay in the rather mysterious offering of $50,000,000 Mexican government bonds by a Texas banker and the reports of satisfactory progress in the negotiations for a $200,000,000 German loan, half of which will be offered to this country.

European foreign exchange rates held relatively steady despite the heavy offerings of grain and cotton bills. South American currencies rallied briskly on the theory that the higher grain prices here would stimulate export from the Latin-American countries.

How They Judge an Air Race

Even the judges are up high in an air race. They're not in planes, but they have to climb atop the pylon to get a good view of the racing ships. The pylon, a tall shaft, is the judges' stand. It is seen here at the left. The plane just passing it is winning the Liberty Engine Builders' trophy contest in the international sprint at Dayton, O. It is being piloted by Lieut. L. O. Duke of Washington, an army flyer.

branches there; since a disintegration of Europe's currency can rob our grain farmers of their world markets and bring bankruptcy to 55 per cent of the farmers in nine of our greatest grain-raising states; and since such conditions even now threaten our world market in manufactured products, we are certainly interested in this problem.

"The league, since it is based upon American ideals, naturally is dependent for its full success upon American cooperation and leadership.

A Practical Suggestion.

"A practical step, which I would recommend to your consideration, is to take the question out of politics, which may be done by working for an associate membership, which means cooperating with the nations in the league on the same basis on which we cooperated with the Allies during the war (we were not one of the Allies, rather an associate power with them).

"In the July issue of Foreign Affairs Col. House makes that suggestion: that the United States become an associate member of the league without being a signor of the Covenant nor the Treaty of Versailles. No political party in American could conscientiously object for the American Congress was ready to join the league with reservations regarding Articles 19 and 20.

"I think that America would be accepted on this basis and that she would be granted representation in both the Congress and Assembly of the League of Nations," said Mr. Harvey in closing.

Program for Today.

At the business session this morning reports of the various departments and committees and the election of officers will take place. This afternoon there will be further department reports and plans.

This evening at 8 o'clock an historical pageant of particular interest to the members of the W. C. T. U. will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Susie Ingerman of this city. There will also be selections by the Wesleyan orchestra, songs by Mrs. Frances W. Graham, and stereoscopic pictures on "America the Beautiful."

Saturday Morning.

The devotional services which opened the convention on Saturday were conducted by the evangelistic department and were followed by several important reports. It was announced that the W. C. T. U. of the state had received $15,000 from the sale of the Helen L. Bullock school at Elmira, the money to be converted into a scholarship fund for the use of young girls who are identified with the W. C. T. U.

A number of short pageants illustrated the progress during the past year in the following departments: Sabbath observance, Sabbath School, Work, Scientific Temperance Instruction, Social Meetings and Red Letter Days, Social Morality, Soldiers and Sailors and Temperance and Mission. The nominating prayer was given by Mrs. C. W. Briggs, president of the Orange county union.

Saturday Afternoon.

The two W. C. T. U. missionary workers, who spoke at the Saturday afternoon session of the convention, gave many new facts and interesting insight on the general topic of "Making Americans." Mrs. Athena Marmorek, the W. C. T. U. missionary at Ellis Island, spoke of the activities of the Christian Temperance workers at that place. During the past year three women have done much to improve conditions in the dormitories and hospitals, have conducted the recreation, taught English, sewing and games to the younger children, and stamped, setting as much as $22 a day, and gave numerous concerts for the immigrants.

Drying Up the Bullion.

In speaking of her work among the immigrants of New York city, Mrs. Josephine Coughlin stated that her special task was drying up the bullion, remarking that she "dried up" on every day on 35 or 36 days. It is a task that requires both heart and patience.

refused to have run on our ticket for lieutenant governor.

The Democratic Platform.

See what the Democratic platform says: "Recognizing that the interpretation of the 18th amendment to the federal constitution expressed in the Volstead act has resulted in widespread contempt and violation of the law, in illegal traffic in liquors and official corruption, we insist upon congress enacting such modification of the Volstead act as shall legalize, subject to the approval of the people of the state of New York, the use of beer and light wines under such careful restrictions as were imposed by the law passed in New York in 1920."

This is the same old beer bill enacted in 1920 and signed by Governor Smith.

We know and he knows such a law is unconstitutional. The courts have said so.

He refers to his opponent as a "more name" and I say Governor Smith is the biggest political four-furter this generation has yet produced when he tries to work his old outworn beer bill the second time.

Roosevelt's Enforcement Promise.

Theodore Roosevelt in his Oyster Bay speech says:

"A year ago last spring our state enforcement law was repealed. The Democratic state platform contains no plank for the repeal of the same, but the national platform of the Democratic party to which they all subscribed, says: 'The Republican administration has failed to enforce the prohibition law and is guilty of trafficking in liquor permits and has become the protector of violators of this law.' These Democrats would run with the hare and hunt with the hounds. As far as we are concerned in this state, we have absolutely no power to modify the Volstead law, whatever our personal opinions may be. That is a federal and not a state matter. We are confronted with one problem, and one alone, and that is law or lawlessness. I choose law. I shall do all in my power, therefore, to secure the enactment of proper statutes to assist our peace officers in the enforcement of this act of congress, as well as all other acts and laws, as long as it remains on the statute books. Whether or not you and I approve of an individual law, there is one course open to us, and only one, if we are real Americans, and that is, to enforce it as long as it remains the law."

That is a clear promise. If Theodore Roosevelt is elected governor and we elect a Republican legislature we will have another enforcement code and citizens of New York will no longer have to hold their heads in shame as nullificationists.

We have Col. Theodore Roosevelt's promise at Oyster Bay.

Always Against Repeal.

This is no new idea with him. Assemblyman Davison, of Nassau county, from Col. Roosevelt's district, voted against the repeal of the Mullen-Gage act. He was criticized for it. On June 4, 1922, Roosevelt in a letter to Davison said:

"Dear Tribune: "Since the Mullen-Gage Bill was repealed in the assembly, quite a number of people from Nassau have spoken to me criticizing your vote. I thought, therefore, I would take this opportunity of telling you that I feel you are absolutely right in voting against the repeal."

That is the way he felt in 1922. He feels the same now.

I assure you if I am elected lieutenant governor I will do all in my power to get a new enforcement law on the books.

Such is our goal. We can only reach it by hard work.

Two years ago over 600,000 qualified voters never went near the polls at all.

We lost our enforcement bill. We can get it again in one way only. We must elect a Republican governor and a Republican legislature. Get our up state women to vote.

Billy Sunday said in Elmira the other day:

"I hate those touch-me-not folks who always have their quills sticking out." Don't knock but let us all pull together.

Tolley Another Speaker.

Another of the candidates for political office who addressed the convention on Saturday afternoon was Harold S. Tolley of Litchfield, who is running for congress from the 50th district. After a brief introduction, Mrs. Boole presented Mr. Tolley, saying that he was another candidate who had the endorsement of the organization.

Mr. Tolley opened with the statement that when he was a candidate in the primaries, he was warned by many politicians that playing with the W. C. T. U. was political suicide, but that they did not know the spirit of womanhood, and that his success was largely due to the work of the W. C. T. U. The trouble with the politicians, according to Mr. Tolley is that they are not understanding that a woman means what she says.

Honest Representation.

Zachary workers of the W. C. T. U. are offering a return to honest representation. No man can be politically dry but personally wet without sacrificing honesty of purpose and sincerity of action. To vote for a law the official himself is unwilling to obey is to violate a cardinal principle of representative government. When sincerity is displaced by hypocrisy, corruption and lawlessness are inevitable results.

Present Challenge.

Present conditions justify your insistent demand for honest motives and sincere actions. The laxity in the enforcement of law is to be expected when public officials comply with a policy in forbidden practices. The bird can not lead the flock. Representative government is founded on the principle of honesty of purpose and sincerity of action.

Interest in Elections.

This stand of your organization in keeping the women voters from the deluge of non-participation over the heads of the women have never exercised their right of franchise. They appeal against these women naturally have a deeper interest in transmitting an unbroken heritage to posterity. Non-voters are now beginning to sense this responsibility. Your efforts are multiplying them to perform their duty at the polls.

Patrick Task.

Patrick Task, which landed proclaimed as the political religion of the nation, calls you forth to your patriotic task. As you urge the men to register and enroll as voters at the elections, you demonstrate by deeds your patriotism. With no desire for greed, with no hunger for patronage, and with no thought of self-advancement you unselfishly labor for a just principle. You honor the words of Calvin Coolidge, who said, "It is the duty of a citizen not only to observe the law but to let it be known that he is opposed to its violation." Your idealism and your performance of duty assure well for the future of this nation.

Speaking of the candidacy of Col. Roosevelt for Governor of New York Mr. Tolley said that he was glad to find that the W. C. T. U. had endorsed his opponent in 1920, and a man who bore scars of an early conflict on the fields of France, before most of the men from this country had set foot on that soil.

He said that Roosevelt was known as a man who never breaks his word, a real Roosevelt, and that he will carry on in the matter of law enforcement as he did "Over there."

Big Allegiance Parade.

The big event of the Saturday afternoon convention witnessed by thousands of Oneonta citizens, was the Allegiance parade in which about 450 delegates participated. Miss Hazel Wright acted as marshal for the parade which was headed by the Gloria Trumpeters from Brooklyn, who played the "Battle Hymn of the Republic." Next in order were the state officers who were followed by a number of large delegations representing every county in New York state, by sixteen city officials; by the Woman's Relief corps of Oneonta, by the United Presbyterian Missionary society, by the Woman's Home Missionary society of the First Methodist church, and by the women of the First Presbyterian church. Music for the parade was furnished by Keeton's Oneonta band. The line of march extended from the First Presbyterian church, down Main street, around Broad, Market and Chestnut and up Main street again. The affair was in charge of Mrs. L. M. DeSilva of Albany, and served as a fine testimonial of the splendid spirit of W. C. T. U. workers.

Saturday Evening.

The two leading events of the Saturday evening session were the program of classical music rendered by the Gloria Trumpeters of New York city and the "Save America" contest, conducted by five members of the Y. P. B. The trumpeters opened their program with the March from "Aida," by Verdi, and concluded with the "Low Chord," by Sullivan and the "Coronation March," by Meyerbeer. This quartet has proven one of the leading attractions of the convention, one of its members having been a former member of the Edna White Trumpeters who were received with great enthusiasm when they appeared in Chautauqua work in this city a number of years ago. The Gloria Trumpeters were organized by Miss Florence McMillan of New York city and are popular not only there but throughout the country, and especially at the various colleges and universities where they are greatly in demand. They left immediately after their concert having for New York city engagements to fill on Sunday.

The "Save America" contest was a contest between members of the Y. P. B. participated their readings being excerpts from the book "Save America," by Mrs. Lucy Peabody. Mrs. Vanda Webster—"Watchman, What of the Night?" Miss Margaret Funston—"Repeal or Nullification of Liquor Usage," Miss Fern Davis—"Dangerous Radicals, Who Are They?" Mrs. Grace Newton—"Kansas, Experiment Station of Prohibition," and Miss Gladys Widrick—"After the Drink Revolution."

The judges for the contest were, Owen Becker, Prof. Mills of the Normal faculty and Miss Irma Ingersoll of the High school faculty. They decided in favor of the last speaker, Miss Gladys Widrick, who will be presented with an autographed copy of the book, "A Jubilee History of the W. C. T. U.," which will come from the press in a few days.

Following the contest Miss Annie Waters delighted the audience with a solo, "Open the Gates," after which the Ladies' Double Quartet gave several excellent numbers. Mrs. Washington, wife of the pastor of the African Methodist Episcopal church of this city, then sang two solos, one being, "The Child of a King," a song mentioned by Harold S. Tolley in his speech on Saturday afternoon, as having been written by his grandfather. The program was concluded with an exhibition of posters made by Chinese children and exhibited by Miss Christine I. Tilling, a recently returned missionary from China.

Annual Sermon by Rev. J. C. Russell.

The annual sermon for the New York state W. C. T. U. convention was delivered in his usual splendid manner by the Rev. Dr. J. C. Russell at the First Presbyterian church at 10:30 yesterday morning. The service was opened with a prayer by Mrs. Ella A. Boole, the state president, after which Dr. Russell preached a sermon which proved to be a brilliant tribute to the Woman's Christian Temperance union, his text being, "And in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torment, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom."

Dr. Russell's thoughts were not directed upon the why or wherefore of hell but, as in the pictorial truth of the parable, merely upon the fact that, "there was a man there." In citing the influences that can, if not Christian, make for the downfall of man he mentioned parents, heredity, the home, companions and books, things that if right can open the gates of heaven to man, but if wrong can lead him through the gate of a Hungry Hell. This modern age is throwing progressive influences about men, one of the best, most far reaching and most Christian being the influence spread by the W. C. T. U.

"It is an organization," stated Dr. Russell, "that had a poor start, but that through faithful work has won success. It began by getting after the person itself, but finding that it could not work alone it allied itself with the big army of moral reform, it went into the public schools, into every home and lived itself up with every phase of public and private life."

There is a famous cathedral teaching completion in Liverpool, one that contains a wonderful window for all of the world's most noble women. But I contend that no church or cathedral in the United States or any other country can be complete without a window dedicated to the memory of Frances Willard, the woman who has done more for bringing temperance and peace into this world than any other."

Splendid Service Last Evening.

The First Presbyterian church was crowded to capacity last evening for the service which closed the day. Every available seat, chair and bit of space in the auditorium of the church was taken and all remained interested until the close of the program.

Opening prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. E. J. Farley of the First Baptist church and there was special music by an augmented choir under the direction of E. P. Perry.

Mrs. Boole, state president, presiding, introduced Mrs. Maude B. Perkins, secretary of the Young People's branch of the W. C. T. U., who spoke on the work being done with the children.

She said: "I believe there is a general underestimation of the value of the efforts of the young people, and the young people of today face the most tremendous task of any generation. We enroll a large number of them because we offer the biggest program and field, and I want to tell you that they are doing some wonderful work."

"Many people in older life say either 'I don't have the time' or 'I don't know how.' Our branch early teaches the habit of having time for some of the most worth while things, and it educates and instructs them in how to do the work."

"We seem to be unable to understand the younger people, and have grave fears, due largely, I believe, to the fact that we can not realize what our emotions and desires were at that stage of life."

"The older people must set the example, and I feel sure that the younger people will follow suit."

Mr. Perry next favored the audience with a fine tenor solo, after which Mrs. Boole introduced Miss Christine I. Tilling, representative of the W. C. T. U. in China, who spoke on the program for that country.

She said that 7,000 missionaries are now laboring in that field to rescue the Chinese from their opium, the morphine of Japan, and the tobacco of America and Great Britain, to say nothing of the rice wine, which is a distilled drink similar to our whiskey, which they make themselves.

She said that cigarettes were killing the youth of China, and that the people of that country were coming to realize that fact.

As a result of the work of the missionaries, Miss Tilling said that the people were coming to help themselves, and that alcohol and tobacco were the forces which were most hindering the Christian work in that country.

Benediction was given by Dr. James C. Russell of the church.
